

Establishing Respect and Responsibility In Our Students

Your opportunity to have a world renowned presenter work with your teachers and parents

The Lauriston Institute supports innovation in teaching and learning. We work at the forefront of professional development by disseminating the latest research that leads to improved student achievement and encourages the growth of professional learning communities.

To follow on from last year's very successful seminars by leading gender-science authority Dr Leonard Sax, the Institute is delighted to announce that Todd Johnson will be at Lauriston in May.

A recognised authority on classroom discipline, Todd will provide you with ideas that are both practical and entertaining. Todd's dynamic presentations have received rave reviews from parents and teachers in the USA, Asia and New Zealand.

Todd Johnson offers:

- Workshops aimed at all teachers (1<sup>1</sup>/<sub>2</sub> hours to 6 hours)
- In-depth Workshops on school-wide approaches to behaviour management for pastoral care leaders
- Parent Seminars for 1<sup>1</sup>/<sub>2</sub> hours

What participants will learn:

- the difference between rules and guidelines
- how to set realistic consequences for inappropriate behaviours
- the importance of being consistent when disciplining
- techniques for handling students who continue to break established rules

TODD WILL BE IN MELBOURNE EARLY MAY 2007.

Don't miss this fantastic opportunity to have Todd at your school.

For more information on how Todd can benefit your staff and for booking information, contact:

Brian Lamb
 Director
 Lauriston Institute
 t: 9864 7611
 e: lambbr@lauriston.vic.edu.au