James Hird is set to make a mark at Lauriston Girls' School

James Hird will be a special guest at the upcoming Father/Daughter Football Breakfast at Lauriston Girls' School.

In conjunction with the Lauriston Parents' Association, James will be discussing his journey as an elite athlete and life after sport during the breakfast for fathers and their daughters to be held on Wednesday 19 August from 7.00am – 8.15am.

James Hird was the former captain of the Essendon Football Club. He was the joint winner of the 1996 Brownlow Medal, and was a member of Essendon's 1993 and 2000 premiership winning sides. James retired at the end of the 2007 season after playing 253 games with the one club.
